About Afrocats

Afrocats is a charity which aims to promote social inclusion. We work to support children and young people from poorer backgrounds to have better access to supplementary education and related activities that will build their confidence, skillset and sense of belonging. We empower economically disadvantaged families and individuals to develop their skills and social networks, broadening their horizons through access to workshops and volunteering opportunities to gain vital employment skills. We engage with the broader public to challenge stereotypes around culture and immigration in a supportive and safe environment to help create a more positive narrative.
